Let Me Learn[®] is a non-profit organization that helps families work more effectively with one another in order to reach a common goal of unity. Our self-awareness and reflective strategies equip each family member to function with a greater sense of purpose and confidence within the family dynamics as well as in school. This summer Let Me Learn has developed an exciting and fun summer camp program that offers social and academic growth while learning in a caring and nurturing environment.

Enhanced Skills Each Child will Receive:

- Learner-centered activities
- Peer teamwork and reflection
- Literature and real world connections
- Art and sharing with the community
- Weekly parent letter and home-connection activities
- Physical movement and practice
- Responsive Circle-time and discussion
- Music and appreciation
- Science and future advancements
- Social Studies and connecting to the past and present
- Math and practical application
